

Good Citizens Say Thank you

Background:

You have been learning how to be a good citizen this school year. A good citizen is kind to others. One way to show kindness is to send a “Thank You!” card to a person who has done something nice for you.

Challenge:

Design and create a “Thank You!” card to let our room mothers know how much you have appreciated all of our parties and round robins this year.

Criteria:

Your card must:

- say “Thank you!”
- have at least one pop up part.
- have one moving part.
- include your name.

Materials:

You may use all or some of these:

- construction paper
- scrap box materials
- glue
- brads

Tools:

You may use all or some of these:

- markers
- pencils
- crayons
- scissors
- ruler

Kindergarten

Virginia Standards of Learning:

Social Studies Civics K.8 Citizenship, Language Arts Oral Language K.2 Listening and Speaking Vocabulary, Language Arts Oral Language K. 3 Build Oral Communication Skills, Language Arts Writing K.10 Prints name, Language Arts Writing K.11 Write to communicate ideas

Leslie Lenhart 2008

W.W.Gordon Elementary