

A Case of Goals

Background: We have read the book Oh the Places You'll Go! By Dr. Seuss. We discussed long and short term goals and why it is important to have goals in your life. After writing your long and short-term goals, it is important to have a case to carry them in as you grow up!

Challenge: Design and make a case to carry your goals with you as your grow up. Your case must be colorful and creative, have two carrying handles, and be closed on the edges.

Criteria: Your case must:

- hold six goals written on 3x5 index cards
- be closed on the edges
- have two carrying handles
-  be colorful and creative

Materials:

- card stock or used file folders
- brads
- yarn
- scrap construction paper
- glue

Tools:

- scissors
- hole punch
- crayons
- markers
- colored pencil

